

Trip Report.

Yulu Xia

Event: Attend XVI IPPC annual meeting in Glasgow, UK

Date: 10-13 – 10-19

Attendee: Yulu Xia

Program: IT and Database Global Theme

Reason for attending the meeting: Make a presentation and scientific exchange

Date to date record

Day One (10-13): Flight to London, spent the night at Gatwick Airport

Day Two (10-14): Flight to Glasgow from London. Went to the Conference Center to get familiar with

Day Three (10-15)

1. Meeting Registration.
2. Visiting Exhibition
3. Attending the Opening Ceremonies and the Keynote lectures

Day four (10-16)

1. A short meeting with couple scientists from China to discuss the issues related to pest information sharing.
2. met with Dr. Kong Luen Heong at IRRI, Short Heinrichs, and other IPM CRSP related scientists.
3. Attended presentations, mainly in CGIAR.

Day Five (10-17)

1. Stop by Dr. Karl Sutor's poster and discussed with him about pest information sharing.
2. Met with Dr. Peter Kenmore, FAO, to discuss future collaboration on global pest information
3. Met with Douglas Pfeiffer VT, and his site coordinator Dr. Josef Tedeschini
4. Attended seminars.

Day Six (10-18)

1. Made a presentation entitled as "Applications of information technology in IPM in the developing world" (section 11C)
2. Associated with the entomologists from North Carolina State
3. Attended the closing ceremony. Dr. Peter Kenmore, FAO, specifically mentioned our works on using information technology in IPM in his closing lecture

Day Seven (10-19): Flight back